Gunmen have killed a young couple in a fresh attack on Angwan Ishaku community in the Barkin Ladi Local Government Area of Plateau State.

The victims were identified as Mr Iliya Gyang, 30, and his pregnant wife, Mrs Grace Iliya, 25. Two other persons were reportedly injured during the attack, which occurred on Wednesday.

A resident of the community, Kacholom Ayuba, confirmed the incident to journalists, saying the attackers struck at about 5:30 pm before fleeing into a nearby bush immediately after the assault.

The Berom Youth Moulders Association also confirmed the attack through its National Publicity Secretary, Rwang Tengwong, who described the killing as gruesome and inhumane.

Tengwong said the assailants arrived on a motorcycle and opened fire on the victims and other residents before escaping through a route leading to settlements in Fass along the Rakung-Sho road.

He explained that Mr Gyang was shot dead while working on his farm close to his residence, while his wife was also shot and died instantly at the scene.
