

Police Arrest Man Over Alleged Killing Of Girlfriend

By Usman A. Bello, Benin

Thu, 2 Jul 2026 6:04:04 WAT

Operatives of the Delta State Police Command have arrested a suspect identified as Adedamola Michael Oyewole, 31, over the alleged murder of his girlfriend, a final year law student in Delta State.

The State Commissioner of Police, Yemi Oyeniyi, said the suspect killed the deceased, a final year law student of the University Port-Harcourt, River State, with a knife in his apartment following an argument in Wari, Delta State.

He said on June 24, 2026, the police received a distress call from a man that his tenant occupying a self-contained apartment murdered his girlfriend identified as Habibatu Aruwa aged 21 and a final year law undergraduate of University of Port-harcourt.

Discover more Breaking news alert >

Newspaper delivery service > Media consulting services >

According to him, following the information, the police mobilised to the scene and found the victim in a pool of her blood and was rushed to the hospital where she was confirmed dead on arrival.

The suspect, one Adedamola Michael Oyewole, was however arrested in connection with the murder.

The commissioner said during investigation the suspect stated that their argument began when the deceased found out that he is married to a woman based in the United State of America.

He added that in the process of the argument, the suspect stabbed her on the neck, stomach and thighs, leading to her death

He said the suspect is in custody while the investigation is ongoing.