Adamawa State Governor, Ahmadu Umaru Fintiri

Governor Ahmadu Umaru Fintiri of Adamawa State has visited victims of a Boko Haram attack in Mayo Ladde community, Hong Local Council, following an assault on Wednesday night.

During the condolence visit, Fintiri expressed sadness over the incident, which left several people dead and others displaced. He addressed displaced residents taking refuge in a neighbouring village in Kuva Gaya, describing the attack as unfortunate and reaffirming the government's commitment to maintaining peace across the state.

The governor commended the military for its efforts in combating insurgency in affected parts of the state and assured continued support for security agencies and local vigilante groups to sustain peace and enable residents to carry out their daily activities.

The Chairman of Hong Local Council, Inuwa Usman Wa'aganda, confirmed that nine people were killed before security personnel intervened.
