

Two-Year-Old Boy Dies After Falling Into Well In Kano

By LONGTONG YAKUBU 2 Days Ago in News

Share on WhatsApp

Share on Facebook

Share on X

Telegram

Advertisement

A two-year-old boy, Danjuma Salman, has died after falling into a well at Bajallabe in Gwale local government area of Kano State.

According to a statement yesterday by the spokesperson of the Kano State Fire Service, ACFO Saminu Yusif, the agency received a distress call at about 10:05am from one Saminu Dayyabu, reporting that a child had fallen into a damaged well in the area.

Advertisement

Upon receiving the call, our emergency response team from the headquarters was immediately mobilised to the scene. On arrival, they found a two-year-old boy, Danjuma Salman, who had fallen into the well whose lid was damaged,” the statement read.

Yusif said the rescue team successfully pulled the child out of the well unconscious, but he was later confirmed dead while the body was subsequently handed over to his father, Salman Dayyabu.

He advised residents to ensure that wells within their surroundings are securely covered to prevent similar tragedies.

RELATED NEWS Katsina Records 50 New Spinal Cord Injury Cases Annually — Experts

Army Arrests 14 Suspected Oil Thieves In Niger Delta

Renewed Bandit Attacks Claim 2 Lives In Katsina Community

Actress Uche Montana Denies Supplying Regina Daniels Drugs

The incident comes barely days after similar occurrences in the state, where an eight-year-old girl, identified as Zara’u Muhammad and a six-year-old boy, Ahmad Abdurashid, also lost their lives after falling into wells in separate incidents.

---

Join Our WhatsApp Channel