Amid concerns over the health condition of the British-Nigerian two-time unified world heavyweight boxing champion, Anthony Joshua, after his involvement in a tragic road accident on Monday along the ever-busy Lagos–Ibadan Expressway, which claimed two lives, the governments of Ogun and Lagos States have said the boxing superstar was conscious, in stable health and had communicated with members of his family.

The two State governments, in a joint press statement, signed by the Special Adviser, Information, to the Ogun State governor, Mr. Kayode Akinmade, and Commissioner for Information, Lagos State, Mr. Gbenga Omotoso, commiserated with the families of victims who lost their lives in the tragic road accident.

According to the statement, “The vehicle conveying a team of four reportedly collided with a stationary truck, resulting in two fatalities.

“We extend our deepest sympathies to the families of those who lost their lives in this tragic incident and pray that Almighty God grants them the strength to bear this difficult loss.

“Anthony Joshua and another passenger were immediately evacuated to a specialised medical facility in Lagos. Following comprehensive clinical assessments, doctors have confirmed that both patients are stable and do not require any emergency medical intervention at this time. A full medical team has been assembled and will continue to monitor them closely.

“Anthony Joshua is conscious and has been in communication with his family.
