

2 Die As Motorcyclist Rams Into Convoy In Akwa Ibom

By Inibong Ekponta 2 Days Ago in News

Share on WhatsApp

Share on Facebook

 Share on X

Telegram

Two persons have lost their lives in a road crash when a motorcyclist rammed into a convoy of vehicles carrying journalists to the 2026 thanksgiving ceremony organised by the Akwa Ibom State Council of the Nigeria Union of Journalists (NUJ).

The incident, according to witnesses, occurred on Idoro Road intersection connecting Uyo, the state capital with Abak as the convoy headed for the New Year

Thanksgiving Service at Qua Iboe Church (QIC), Abak Intense community in Abak local government area.

“The bike operator was carrying a passenger, and along Idoro Road by Pepsi junction, they crashed headlong into the convoy as the cyclist tried to navigate his way out.

“He suddenly lost control and veered into the convoy, and the resultant crashed led to the death of the motorcyclist and his passenger,” Uduak Ephraim, one of the journalists recalled.

LEADERSHIP gathered the unfortunate development outraged the local youths, who vowed revenge against any journalist passing through the route to Abak.

“For the safety of our members who are coming to Abak for the NUJ Thanksgiving Service, kindly avoid using Idoro Road by Pepsi Junction, through Ukpom Abak Road.

‘Even In 10 Lifetimes, He Can’t Match Him’ — Ex-Presidential Aide Ojudu Slams Anti-Fela Comment

‘Short Man’, Seun Kuti Fires Back After Wizkid’s Insults Over Fela Comparisons

Elon Musk Mulls Buying Ryanair After Online Spat With Airlines CEO

TECH FEATURE: Top Gaming Gadgets Of 2026

“There’s a fatal accident that has claimed the lives of two people in Abak, who were on a motor bike. The bike ran into our convoy.

“Please share the message to protect our members, in case of any revenge by the community people, please,” a concerned Journalist cautioned other colleagues.

The Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Timfon John, was yet to respond as at the time of filing this report.