Operatives of the Rivers State Police Command have neutralised two suspected kidnappers as they busted a kidnapping ring in Etche local government area of the state.

The Command, in a statement issued in Port Harcourt on Wednesday, said the two suspects, Abdullahi Ibrahim, aged 23, 'm' of Avara LGA, Nasarawa State and Mohammed Hashim, aged 27, 'm' of Tafawa Balewa LGA, Bauchi State, were fatally wounded during a gun battle between the Police and members of the kidnapping ring

It stated that Ibrahim and Hashim were earlier arrested by operatives of the Anti-Cultism Unit (ACU) of the command for their involvement in the kidnapping of a female victim at Elele waterfront, also in Etche LGA.

The statement, which was signed by the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) in the state, Grace Iringe-Koko, said upon the arrest of the suspects, the sum of ₦2,383,000.00, being part of the ransom paid by the victims' families, was found in their possession.
