Police Arrest 3 Over Murder Of Driver In Rivers

BY ANAYO ONUKWUGHA, Port Harcourt

Operatives of the Rivers State Police Command have arrested three persons in connection with the murder of a mini bus driver, Christopher Emmanuel Akpabio, and hijacked his vehicle.

The command's spokesperson, Blessing Agabe, disclosed this in a statement she issued yesterday in Port Harcourt, the state capital.

Agabe listed those allegedly involved in the crime as David Mark, male, 30 years, native of Andoni local government area; Nkajit Williams, male, 45 years, native of Andoni local government area; and Godgift John, male, 33 years, native of Okrika local government area.

She said preliminary investigation revealed that the deceased was hired at Garrison Park, Port Harcourt, by the suspects under the guise of transporting them to Asarama Community in Andoni local government area for a traditional marriage ceremony.
