Police in collaboration with other security agencies in Kebbi State yesterday said they had killed a kidnap kingpin, Jiji Majugu, in Bagudo local government area of the state.

Police spokesman SP Bashir Usman disclosed this in a statement in Birnin Kebbi yesterday.

He said the success followed a firefight between a gang of eight kidnappers including Majugu and a combined team of security personnel in Geza village in Bagudo where he was neutralised.

Usman added that the gang had attacked the house of one Alhaji Abu Geza in an attempt to abduct him, but they were overpowered, and one member of the gang was arrested while police rescued the victim.
