

GUNMEN KILL 2 HERDERS IN PLATEAU

BY ACHOR ABIMAJE, Jos

Suspected gunmen have killed two herders in an ambush in Talma village, Ngel District of Jos South local government area of Plateau State.

The incident occurred on Monday at 8 p.m. when they heading to their cattle pen.

The state chairman of Miyetti Allah Cattle Breeders Association of Nigeria (MACBAN), Ibrahim Yusuf Babayo, confirmed the incident to journalists in Jos, the state capital.

He gave the names of the victims as Sadiq Muhammad (28) and Mas'ud Abdullahi (29).

Babayo described the attack as unprovoked and called on security forces to track down the perpetrators and bring them to justice.

"The perpetrators shot them several times, resulting in their deaths. They removed eyes for an offence the victims did not commit.

This act of terrorism has become an everyday occurrence, especially in Gyel District.
