

November 27, 2025 by Justina Asishana

Two parents of abducted St. Mary's school children die

Two of the parents of some of the abducted children of St Mary's Catholic Primary and Secondary Schools, Papiri in Agwara local government area have died.

One of the parents, identified as Anthony Musa, was said to have died from a heart attack while the cause of death for the second parent was yet to be ascertained.

Catholic Bishop of Kontagora Diocese, Rev. Bulus Dauwa Yohanna, confirmed the parents' demise yesterday.

Related News

- Papiri: From peaceful haven to den of banditry

Read Also: How police are tackling banditry, other threats, by IG Egbetokun

Yohanna said: "The man, Anthony Musa died of heart attack but the female we don't have the details yet because we couldn't get the family."

Over 300 people were kidnapped by armed terrorists who invaded the primary and secondary schools in Agwara. So far, 50 of the pupils have returned.

The Catholic Diocese of Kontagora on Monday released the names of the abducted children and teachers.

