

Featured

June 6, 2026 by Alao Abiodun | Senior Reporter

BREAKING: Police rescue former minister Adelabu's sister, twin children in Ibadan

...Neutralise two suspects

Operatives of the Nigeria Police Force have rescued Mrs. Busayo John-Paul, a 43-year-old younger sister of former Minister of Power and All Progressives Congress (APC) governorship aspirant, Adebayo Adelabu, along with her twin sons in Ibadan, the Oyo State capital.

The Nation learnt that victims were rescued alive during a late-night rescue operation carried out around 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, June 6.

Read Also: Ogunsanya clinches Nigeria's first medal at World Wrestling Series

Two suspected kidnappers were neutralised in a gun duel with police operatives, while two firearms were recovered from the gang.

Related News

- 12 injured in mass shooting near Ohio festival
- Two killed, four arrested in Ibadan rescue operation, say police

- DSS, Police, Amotekun close in on abductors of nine-year-old boy - Ondo govt

Police sources disclosed that sustained intelligence tracking and tactical pressure forced the kidnappers into a confrontation with operatives, leading to the successful rescue of the victims.

Security operatives are currently combing nearby areas for fleeing members of the kidnapping syndicate, some of whom are believed to have escaped with gunshot wounds.

Details shortly...