

ed by the Commissioner of Po-between traditional rulers and government to check insecurity.

Robbery suspects kill technician in Ondo

From Tosin Tope, Akure

A GANG of suspected armed robbers has killed a popular refrigeration and air conditioning technician, Idris Abiodun Clement, during an attack in Akure, the Ondo State capital, throwing his family, friends and residents into mourning.

The 47-year-old father of five was killed at the weekend in Shagari, Akure South Local Government Area after the hoodlums invaded the neighbourhood in the early hours of the day.

It was gathered that the three robbers stormed the community about 1 a.m., attacking the residents and dispossessing them of their valuables before invading Clement's residence.

The killing has sparked outrage among residents, while the deceased's family has demanded justice, urging security agencies to ensure that everyone connected with the crime is arrested and prosecuted.

Sagamu council chairman impounds