Police in Ondo have launched a manhunt for a man identified as Sodiq Ganiyu after a young woman was found dead in a hotel in Ore, Odigbo Local Government Area.

The woman, whose identity is yet to be confirmed, was discovered lifeless on the bed in the hotel room located along the Ore–Okitipupa road, on Wednesday after hotel staff forced the door open when she failed to respond to knocks.

According to sources, the deceased had checked into the hotel earlier in the day with Ganiyu, who was seen in her company before the incident.

He reportedly fled the premises immediately after the woman's body was found.

A security source said the body has been deposited at the Ore morgue, noting that no visible injuries were observed. A full autopsy is expected to determine the cause of death.

Police authorities confirmed that investigation has begun and that operatives are already on the trail of the fleeing suspect.
