A 28-year-old man, identified as Joseph Dauda Mwanti, has been killed in a brutal attack by suspected bandits in Wereng Community of Riyom Local Government Area, Plateau State, PUNCH Metro gathered on Tuesday.

Our correspondent learnt that two other victims , including 33-year-old Joshua Mwanvwang, were injured in the incident, which occurred around 9 pm on Monday night.

A youth leader in the community, Solomon Mwantiri, confirmed the killing to PUNCH Metro in Jos on Tuesday.

“It is true. We just woke up this morning to another sad news of a brutal attack on our people in the Wereng community. Unfortunately, one person died while two others were wounded” ,Mwantiri said.

In a statement issued on Tuesday, the Berom Youths Moulder-Association condemned the attack, noting that the attackers were believed to be operating from the Fass settlement of Jol Community.
