

A knife in place of words

In March 2021, residents of Igbokoda, a coastal town in Ilaje Local Government Area of Ondo State, were thrown into mourning after an 18-year-old girl, Idowu Biletiri, was alleged to have stabbed her elder brother, Kehinde, to death.

According to sources in the area, the argument started when Kehinde questioned Idowu about her whereabouts after she had stayed away from home for several days. Irritated by the interrogation, Idowu reportedly stormed into the kitchen, picked up a knife and stabbed him.

Only the two of them were in the house at the time.
