

Motor boy dies in Ogun road accident

January 14, 2026 2:33 pm

TRACE logo. | Credit: Facebook, TRACE

Agency Report

The Ogun Traffic Compliance and Enforcement Corps said that one person died in an accident involving two trucks on Tuesday, at Koro-Otun, around Osi Roundabout in Ota, Ogun.

The Ota Divisional Commander of TRACE, Mr Salai Hammed, made this known to the News Agency of Nigeria on Wednesday in Ota.

Hammed said that the accident, which involved a Benz Hiab Truck loaded with iron with Registration No EKY 595 YR and one other truck with no registration number, happened at about 5.45 p.m on Tuesday.

Hammed said that an eyewitness explained that the Benz truck lost control due to brake failure and rammed into the containerised truck.

“The motorboy in the Benz Truck died on the spot, and the corpse of the victim has been released to the family for burial,” he said.

Related News

Suspect linked to 2014 NDLEA officers' killings arrested in Ogun

Developer alleges harassment over N1bn Ogun estate

Egba group urges FG to complete link road

Hammed admonished drivers against speeding and to ensure that their vehicles are in good condition before putting them on the highway.

PUNCH Online reported on January 9 that a commercial driver and his assistant, who were transporting live chicks, lost their lives after their vehicle crashed into the median at the Oremeji area of the Lagos-Ibadan Expressway on

The deceased were travelling in a Mazda commercial bus with registration number YNF 414 XN when they lost control due to excessive speeding and rammed into the median on the expressway.

NAN