

2 commercial motorcycle riders crushed to death in Edo

17 May 2026 6:49 pm WAT

By danivert

From Tony Osauzo, Benin

Two commercial motor cycle riders popularly known as Okada riders, have been reportedly crushed to death at Idogbo, headquarters of Ikpoba-Okha Local Government Area of Edo State.

The deceased whose identities could not be ascertained were said to have been crushed after a truck driver lost control and rammed into them at the Idogbo by-pass along the Benin-Abraka highway.

BUZZ DAY

Malia Obama's Transformation Is A Sight To See

LEARN MORE

Other News

Edo: 58 rescued, 55 kidnappers arrested in massive operation

Edo squad arrests 12 suspected cultists in Benin

Okpebholo: Edo on course to become modern state

Witnesses said the truck was coming from the Abraka end of the highway when it lost control.

Confirming the incident, spokesman of the Edo State Police Command, Eno Ikoedem, said it happened last Saturday.

She disclosed that the truck driver has been arrested for further investigation