No fewer than four members of the Civilian Joint Task Force (CJTF) and four labourers working for Borno State Ministry of Reconstruction, Rehabilitation and Resettlement (RRR) have been killed in a fresh attack by Boko Haram/ ISWAP terrorists in Mayenti Community in Bama Local Government Area of the state.

The attack occurred on Monday, hours after the Chief of Air Staff (CAS), Air Marshal Sunday Kelvin Aneke, visited Maiduguri on his first operational tour to the theatre of the counter-insurgency operations in the Northeast.

Two soldiers and two members of the CJTF were also killed on Friday when the terrorists ambushed troops of Operation Hadin Kai Joint Taskforce on a routine operation in Wajiroko in Azir Multe in the Damboa Local Government of Borno State.

Mayenti, where the attack occurred, is located a few kilometres from Darajamal in the same Bama where the terrorists, months ago, killed over 60 persons, including five soldiers and burnt several
