The boyfriend of a yet to be identified woman has fled, following the woman's death in a popular hotel located in Ore in Odigbo Local Government Area of Ondo State

The Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Olu-sola Ayanlade, a Deputy Superintendent of Police, said the Command was on the trail of the man, identified as Ganiyu Sodiq, who was alleged to have brought the lady to the hotel.

The lifeless body of the lady was discovered in the hotel after a suspected marathon sex with the man. The shocking discovery was made when hotel staff, responding to unanswered knocks, entered the room.

Upon entering the room, workers found the woman lying motionless on the bed, without any visible signs of violence. According to sources, she had checked into the hotel with a man identified as Sodiq Ganiyu, reportedly spending the night.

The hotel is situated along the busy Ore-Okitipupa Road. The hotel is a popular stop for both travelers and locals.
