...man arrested for raping 2 minors

The homicide section of the Delta State Police Command has launched investigation into the death of one Courage who was allegedly killed by one Ogheneghare of taking his client and money that was supposed to come to him.

The suspect said he was the one talking to a client first, before the deceased went behind him to talk to the client and collected the money meant for the deal when he informed him, but went behind him to take his client.

It was gathered that immediately the deceased received the money he moved out of the house they were bought living to rent his own apartment. Edafe, who narrated the incident in a video, said that it was sad and that the command warned severally last year on the increasing rate of unnecessary deaths.

Edafe said it was becoming worrisome that unwarranted death was getting too much in the state, as a result of unnecessary behavior of youths witnessed now.

Genesis

The 28-year-old man, Ogheneghare, said himself and his late friend decided to go into Internet fraud after graduation from school when they started their business. He said: "The deceased and I were roommates before the unfortunate incident occurred.

"I never knew my shovel will hit him on his head, because he was the first person that hit me, when he hit me again, that was when I hit him, but that we fight."

Hospital

"It was when we were fighting that he suddenly fell down, and he was bleeding profusely and was rushed to the hospital by some people who saw where he was rushed to, it was after I was arrested that I got to know the extent of the injury he sustained in the fight.

"I never knew he will die, I only tried to fight him and get what I wanted from him. We are both into cultism, but different groups. I am a black and he is a white, that separated us. "As a friend we never talked about the cult group we belonged to when we are together.

We joined cult groups due to pressure and harassment in school, we had never participated in cult activities before now, we only joined to protest. I will never advise people to join cult, it leads to death. God should please forgive me and I also appeal to Courage's parents to forgive me. I regret putting them and my siblings to shame."

Police

The police Spokesperson urged parents to bring their children up in the way of God and discourage them from what will lead them to their untimely deaths. He said: "They should also do away with the intake of illicit substance that can lead to death or destruction of property."

In a similar situation, a 41-year-old man was arrested for allegedly doing threesome with two teenagers at Delta State. The Police Spokesperson said it was a pathetic situation where a 41 year old man allegedly coerced and had a threesome with two female minors aged 12-yrs and 13-years.

Edu said a report was received at Agbaho area of the state and that young girls still going through sexual harassment and abuse from men when the report came to the Command, operatives of the gender unit were deployed to the scene and the suspect was arrested. It is a pity, I wonder what

Suspect

The 41-year-old man, Oghenegenogaga Emmanuel, said it was after he was arrested that he realised that the girls were minors, because they attracted him. "When I met the two of them, they never looked like minors to me, I talked to them and they accepted to date me, it was the 13-year-old girl that I first slept with before the younger one came into the picture and she also accepted to date me when I told her I liked her."

"It was the older one that I first slept with before the younger one came into the picture and she also accepted to date me when I told her I liked her with the younger one before the threesome day."

Threesome

"One fateful day, I was at home when the two girls came to check on me and I started playing with them, I told them that I wanted to try something which they did. "It was in the process that I did threesome with them, one of them said she has not tried it before, but only hear people talking about it."

"I didn't defile the 12-yr-old and the 13-year-old girls, they were both dis-virgin when I met them." When asked if someone sleeps with his own child, he said:

Victim

One of the victims, a 12-year-old girl said it was the older girl that invited her to the suspect's house, before the suspect had carnal knowledge of her. She said she told him she cannot do it, but he said it will not pain her.

"I never knew my friend had been sleeping with him before then, until that fateful day. He threatened me not to tell anyone including my parents. I got to know about the incident and begged me to tell her what happened to me, I told her a friend of mine took me to a man's house and the next day I was raped."

"My mum started weeping and took me to the hospital where it was confirmed that I was raped. Now I cannot sit down, I always feel pains from my back, before we got to the suspect he was already arrested by the police.
