One victim was said to have survived the attack but remains unconscious, while the whereabouts of several others are still unknown, raising fears that the death toll may increase.

Eyewitness accounts described a chaotic scene, with many residents fleeing into nearby bushes and neighbouring communities for safety.

Residents say search efforts are ongoing as families await updates on those still missing.

Details surrounding the incident remain sketchy as the Spokesperson of the Benue State Police Command, DSP Udeme Edet is yet to issue an official statement.
