Panic erupted in the early hours of yesterday after suspected herdsmen reportedly attacked an Army Estate in the Kurudu area of Abuja.

The incident, which occurred around 12:15 a.m at Kurudu Post Army Estate, Phase 5, however left one of the assailants dead.

According to eyewitness accounts, between 30 and 40 armed men believed to be herdsmen stormed the estate, causing fear among residents.

However, occupants of the estate quickly raised the alarm, prompting an immediate response from soldiers stationed at the estate's gate.

During the confrontation, one of the suspected attackers was shot dead, while others fled the scene. It remains unclear whether the attackers intended to carry out a robbery or a kidnapping operation, as authorities are yet to release an official statement on the incident. Residents have been urged to remain vigilant as investigations continue.
