A 38-year-old man has been arrested by men of the Ondo State Police Command for allegedly beating his 65-year old father, Adone Peter, to death in Oda in the Akure South Local Government Area of the state.

The Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Abayomi Jimoh, said the incident has generated widespread concern among residents of the area.

According to him, a preliminary investigation revealed that on May 28, the suspect allegedly engaged his father in a violent altercation, which escalated into a physical assault.

During the confrontation, he said the deceased reportedly sustained severe injuries, particularly to the head. He said the victim was immediately rushed to a medical facility for urgent medical attention.

However, he said the medical personnel attending to the victim confirmed him dead despite efforts to revive him Jimoh said following a formal complaint lodged at the police station by one Daniel Moses, a son of the deceased and brother to the suspect, detectives promptly commenced an investigation into the matter.
