A man has been beheaded while seven houses were reportedly burnt following a violent clash sparked by a dispute over a girlfriend at Ogute-Oke community in Esan South East Local Government Area of Edo State.

The incident occurred shortly after the community's Olimi festival celebration, forcing several residents to flee the area to avoid possible arrest. Sources said the crisis began during a party organised to mark the burial of a prominent chief in the community, when a disagreement broke out between two men over a woman.
