

3 youths killed in Nasarawa

The incident happened on Gidan-Raid Road, Kwara in Keana Local Government Area of the state, when three youths were sent on an errand by elders of the clan to break news of death of an elder statesman to family members in another community.

Recalled that two youths were shut dead and one other abducted and still in custody of abductors since two days ago at Sarkin Noma, a neighbouring community in a night attack.

The resent attacks and killings in Nasarawa communities have forced many residents to appeal to president Donald Trump to consider Nasarawa State in his plan to wipe out terrorists in the country.

Reacting, many sympathisers at the mass burial of the three killed at Duduguru, who were in tears said they wanted Trump to hurry up in his planned invasion to wipe out terror in Nigeria.

While others kick against Trump's planned attacks, others hold that he is the only solution to the senseless killings that have ravaged communities.

The three victims who hailed from Duduguru in Jenkwe development area of Keana council were given a mass burial early hours of yesterday in Duduguru.
