Three police men were feared dead in Lagos when a commercial Faragon bus ran over them and crushed them to death.

The unfortunate incident happened on Friday Morning at Cement Bus Stop along Lagos-Abeokuta Express Road. The bus according to eye witnesses was coming from the Oshodi end of the Express Road and heading towards Iyana Ipaja when the accident occurred.

It was gathered that the policemen were chasing commercial motorcycle which flouted the State government law ban on the operation of motorcycles when the accident occurred.

Further investigation revealed that the commercial motorcycle popular referred to as Okada in Lagos and the passengers escaped.

When contacted, the Public Relations Officer, Lagos State Police Command , Ngozi Braide, a Deputy Superintendent of Police, DSP said that she received some calls from a media house in respect of that trying to confirm the incident, but was yet to confirm from the Divisional Police Officer of that area or the Area Commander.
