An eyewitness, Adewale Adeoye, said that the woman was not pleased with the N3,000 her husband gave her and an argument started.

"The incident happened around 5: 30 a.m. and the shouting from Garba's room woke us up at our Iraba Compound.

"The woman is carrying Garba's pregnancy, though she had been married to two other men in the past.

"On that fateful day, she went to Garba's house to demand for money to buy 'mother-care' for their unborn child and the husband gave her N3, 000, which she rejected.

"Nike held Garba's shirt at the neck and immediately, the man fell down and died", he said.

A source said that the deceased was buried in the evening of the same day, while the wife was taken to the Omu-Aran Police station for interrogation.

Members of the deceased's family, however, declined comment when visited.

Also, the Police Public Relations Officer for Kwara, ASP Daboh Ezekiel, said on phone that the state command had not been briefed on the incident. (NAN)
