Police lose inspector, arrest Boko Haram suspect

MONDAY, 18 APRIL 2011 00:00 ANONYMOUS

The Borno police command said on Saturday it had apprehended a member of the Boko Haram sect in Maiduguri after a gun duel.

"We have apprehended a suspected member of the Boko Haram sect today in Umarari ward, Maiduguri, after a gun duel with a team of policemen.

"The police had invaded his hideout after a tip-off, but he engaged the officers in a gun battle on their way to get him," Mike Zuokumor, the commissioner of police in the state, said.

Zuokumor told newsmen in Maiduguri that a police inspector was killed in the exchange of fire.

"It is sad that we lost an inspector of police in the incident, but the good thing is that we have been able to apprehend the suspect with his killer AK 47 rifle."
