

Robbers kill two in Ore

TWO Port Harcourt-Lagos-bound passengers were shot dead by armed bandits on the Ore-Benin Road at the weekend.

The robbers struck in the early hours when about 15 of them ambushed Port Harcourt-Lagos-bound luxury buses around Ore in Ondo State.

Armed with sophisticated guns, they stopped and sporadically shot some of the buses, including the one boarded by The Comet correspondent in Yenagoa.

One person was shot dead in the bus and several others wounded.

Also, two other buses that suffered same fate had similar baptism of fire.

One person was also killed and several others wounded as all their belongings were stolen.
