

SUSPECTED ritualists last Sunday killed a 10-year-old girl, Aisha Saminu at Funtua in Katsina State.

Her father, Malam Mohammed Saminu, in Funtua on Tuesday said that his daughter was killed by suspected ritualists last Sunday.

He said his suspicion was based on the fact that only her head, her two hands and the remains of her intestines were left.

He said no arrest had been made, but that efforts were being made to check the incidence of such killings, which was becoming rampant in the area.

Last month, a 12-year-old girl, Zainab, was beheaded by suspected ritualists in Funtua.
