Mrs Hadijat Adebayo, mother of 13-year-old Master Rilwani who was recently allegedly raped five times by a serving customs officer has cried to Inspector-General of Police, Mr. Sunday Ehindero and other relevant authorities to ensure that she gets justice.

A 60-year-old Customs and Exercise Officer (names withheld) was said to have had serial anal sex with the boy, who is now unconscious at Lagos hospital.

Hadijat who spoke exclusively to Daily Champion in her No. 52 Sari Igannu Road residence Orile enjoined spirited individuals to provide financial assistance to save the life of Rilwani who she said is dying in the hospital.

"He is ill, he looks like morons, his cheek swollen, his leg not moving and white fluid comes out of his anus. He need urgent and good medical attention to save his life," she said.

According to her, the customs officer, who is billed to retire next month lured her son to his pent house in his (custom house) and had several anal sex with him.

According to her the customs officer who is currently detained at Kiriiri prison over the crime used juju on the boy.

She added that the man used Rilwani for rituals. "My son has never remained the same since the old man started sexing him.

He used him for rituals and collected the sperm for fetish reasons," she added.

According to the mother, trouble started sometimes last December when the custom officer sent for Rilwani in his house. She stated that Rilwani honoured the invitation without informing her.

However, she said, the bubble burst recently when Rilwani was hit by strange ailment resulting to rushing him to hospital where he told her the truth. "He did not tell me until we took him to a nursing mothers house and at the point of death, he confided in me what happened to him."

She said that the police were immediately contacted leading to the arrest of the man and taken to Orile Police station for interrogations.

She informed the IGP that the custom officer ordered Rilwani to pose like a dog while he demonstrated to him what he (custom officer) wanted him to do. At the end of the exercise he (officer) will kiss the boy, romance him and sex him through the anus.

She stated that the boy was afraid to reveal the secrete until the ailment.

However, at the state Criminal Investigation Department, SCID, Yaba where the case was investigated, a Senior Police Officer who handled the case said "the custom officer did not deny having serial anal sex with the boy but denied using him for rituals.

Commenting on the issue, Deputy Commissioner of police in charge of SCID, Mr. Olayinka Balogun said, the suspect has been charged to court for bestiality and having canal knowledge of a fellow man through abdominal route.
