

were said to have fallen into an uncovered well, up the ghost.

said to be over 20 metres
deep.

Trailer crushes LASTMA staff, others to death

A trailer driver, at the weekend, crushed a staff of Lagos State Traffic Management Authority (LASTMA) while on duty at the major high way.

The LASTMA officials, identified as Kola Ogundele was hit at charity bus stop Oshodi, along Apapa/Oshodi Express road.

An eye witness told our correspondent that Ogundele was cruising in his motorcycle before the trailer overran him.

He stated that the trailer with registration number XB929 MNY ran over the motorcycle driven by Ogundele.

Our source said the driver of the trailer, one Murtala Usman attempted to escape but was prevented by sympathisers who quickly gathered around him he died on the spot.

Similarly, another trailer killed two pedestrian at Toyota Bus stop, along Oshodi Apapa Expressway. The deceased were said to have been crossing the road before the incident occurred.

One of the deceased identified as Tayo Rafiu was said to be a trader at the Ladipo market Mushin, he was said to be going to his shop before he met his tragic end.

Also, a 35 year old motorcycle operator (okada) was crushed to death by a commercial volkswagen mini bus at Kirikiri, Lagos.

The okada operator, Mr. Lucky Okoh was crushed to death by one Lekan Kari while driving a bus with reg no XG322 FST.

Confirming the incident, Lagos State Police Command said Traffic Policemen visited the scenes and their corpse removed.

According to the command's spokesman Mr. Olubode Ojajuni the cases are under investigations.

Ojajuni, a Deputy Superintendent of Police (DSP) warned motorists against unnecessary speed.

Ministe