Togolese woman dies in hotel after marathon sex

Stories by LUKKEY ABAWURU

THE lifeless body of a Togolese national, identified as Gine Bose was found in a room in a three-star hotel in Ketu, (names withheld), Lagos, after alleged marathon sex with her lover.

Daily Champion learnt that the deceased and her lover (names also withheld) went into the hotel for amorous relaxation and other sexual escapades.

Although the profession of the late Togolese could not be ascertained, as at press time sources at the hotel said she was a regular customer in the place, they could not however confirm whether she was a "hawker" commercial sex worker or not. But our correspondent learnt that the deceased and her lover spend sometimes in the hotel and after what our source described as a prolonged marathon sex, the lady collapsed and could not be immediately revived by her randy lover.

The lover, however, attempted to escape but was prevented by the staff of the hotel.

A source said, the man screamed at first, when his lover became unconscious. His screaming attracted the attention of the hotel officials.

Reacting to the incident, police spokesman, Mr. Olubode Ojajuni said the case was reported at Ketu (by undisclosed person).

He also confirmed that the corpse of the deceased has been deposited in the morgue for autopsy.

However, when Daily Champion went to the hotel, for further enquiries, it was locked and few people who were seen in the place declined to comment on the issue publicly.

But one of them who pleaded anonymity said "we were surprised because when the lady sat at the reception room waiting for her lover, she did not show any sign of ailment, so when the man shouted, we quickly moved into the place and found her lifeless body, what led to her death is a mystery to us."

In a related development, police have arrested a 27-year old lady simply identified as Jennifer who allegedly gave drugs to another lady to abort an eight months pregnancy.

The girl died while attempting to abort the pregnancy.

Our correspondent learnt that the deceased, was a student of one of the vocational schools in Ajegunle. His boy friend was said to have approached Jennifer to assist in aborting the pregnancy which she accepted and procured drugs for her.

However, luck ran against them when the deceased died few hours after taking the medicine.

Her corpse, according to Ojajuni, who also confirmed the story, has been deposited in a public mortuary.
