

Lagos: 4 robbery suspects roasted

TUNBOSUN OGUNDARE

A four-man gang of armed robbers was early hours of yesterday, roasted alive for stealing sundry items.

They were burnt beyond recognition by some men believed to be members of the dreaded Oodua Peoples Congress (OPC), who apprehended them after a successful operation.

The incident took place at Orile Bus Station, in Orile Agege local government Area, Lagos.

Eye witness account revealed that the gang were notorious robbers, who had been terrorizing the people of Orile Agege and environs and robbing them of their valuables. A pistol was said to have been recovered from them.

When Saturday Champion visited the spot few hours after the incident, many students and neighbours were seen gathered and discussing the incident.

It was gathered that the Health officials from the Orile Agege Development Council had at press time removed the bodies and deposited them at the mortuary.
