

Son arraigned over father's murder

A 25-year-old Musa Dilla of Old Army Barracks the headquarters of Suleja Local Government Area of Suleja town Niger State has appeared before a Magistrate court, in Minna, Niger State capital for alleged murder of his father.

The deceased Dilla Enulua, 53 was the biological father of the accused person who was allegedly killed by his son in the premises of their house in Suleja town.

According to the first information report (F.I.R) Musa

Dilla on the 2nd February 2006 used a knife and stick to stab his biological father on the chest and neck which eventually resulted to his death on the spot.

The report further stated that the incidence was reported to the police by a soldier (names withheld) attached to old Army Barracks Suleja.

The prosecutor Sergeant Musa Gano told the court that investigation into the matter is still on, adding that the offence is punishable with death.

He told the court that the offence of which the suspect was arraigned before the court is not ordinary patricide.

Gano then applied for adjournment to enable him duplicate the case file which is to be forwarded to the office of the Director Public Prosecution (DPP) for legal advice.