

Youth rapes woman, 70, to death

ONDOL State Police command has launched a manhunt for a middle-aged man who allegedly raped a 70-year-old woman to death.

A police source in Oka told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) that the incident took place at Ikese quarters, Oka-Akoko in Akoko South-West local government area of the state last Wednesday.

According to the source, the suspect, whose name has yet to be ascertained, went into the victim's room on the pretext that he had a message for her from Lagos.

While in the room, he allegedly grabbed the septuagenarian, covered her with a big towel and raped her.

According to the source, her groaning attracted neighbours, a development that made the suspect to flee.
