

Police arrest female student for infanticide

ZAMFARA Police Command has arrested a female student of Abdu Gusau Polytechnic, Talata-Mafara, Miss Rahanatu Shehu, for allegedly killing her newly born baby.

The Command's Public Relations Officer, Mr. Lawal Abudllahi, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) yesterday in Gusau that the suspect was arrested last Monday in the school premises.

He said the suspect, a computer science student, was alleged to have strangled the baby to death after delivery and dumped it in the toilet.

Abdullahi said the suspect was assisting the police in their investigations and would be charged to court later.

In another development, the command has also arrested one Yahaya Sanusi for allegedly snatching N400,000 from a UBA Plc customer after withdrawing the money.

Yahaya was said to have trailed his victim to the main branch of the bank near the central police station in Gusau and snatched the money from him.
