An unidentified woman was yesterday crushed to death in an auto accident at Oshodi bus stop Lagos, while two others were injured in the accident.

An eye witness, who does not want his name in print told Daily Champion that the accident involving a trailer and a Volvo car occurred at 2pm yesterday.

He claimed that the fatal accident was caused by brake failure of the trailer.

The 18-tyre trailer was said to have skidded off the road and rammed into a parked Volvo killing a woman and injuring two others by the roadside.

When our correspondent visited the scene, Lagos State Transport Management Authority (LASTMA) had evacuated the affected vehicles.

It was also gathered that the body of the deceased had been deposited at Ikeja General Hospital, while those injured were taken to an undisclosed hospital for treatment.

All efforts to get LASTMA's Public Relations Officer, (PRO) Adedoyin Adepoju to comment on the accident proved abortive as his phone was switched off as at press time.
