3 rape 14-year-old girl to death

Barry Osa Agbanigbi, Asaba

A 14-year-old girl was raped to death by three sex maniacs yesterday in a bush at Ogwashi-Uku in Aniocha South Local Government of Delta State.

Police sources confirmed to Daily Champion that the victim one Stella Chinedu, was sent on an errand to a nearby village by her uncle Mr. Paul Oka, when the sex maniacs accosted her and lured her into the bush where they engaged her in rigorous and violent sex.

The girl was said have collapsed during the exercise and died with blood gushing out from her private part. Police sources confirmed that the sex maniacs abandoned the victim and took to their heels.

It was however gathered that when Stella did not return home, the uncle Mr. Paul Oka, a staff of Delta State Ministry of Finance had to organize a search party which later found the lifeless body of the girl in a nearby bush. Following this development, the police was said to have been immediately alerted.

The body of the girl has been removed and taken to the Federal Medical Centre, Asaba for autopsy. Already two of the suspects have been apprehended by the police while investigation into the incident had commenced.. Nemesis was said to have caught up with one of the suspects when he was identified by a middle aged man who spotted the rapists and hid himself while the action lasted.

Police who obviously acted on a tip-off by this informant reportedly launched an intensive man-hunt for the identified suspect.

Police efforts were said to have yielded positive result following the arrest of the fleeing suspect.

"Confessions by this suspect, identified as Charles Okoro (a.k.a Obstacle) led to the arrest of others, said police sources.
