

Man kills brother in a fight

THE physical combat between two brothers at Ekuku-Agbor, in Ika South Local Government Area of Delta, has led to the death of one of them.

An eyewitness told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Asaba on Tuesday that Sylvester Okoh and Macauley Okoh on Friday had misunderstanding over domestic issues, which led to a fight.

He said that efforts made by neighbours to separate them proved abortive and that Sylvester killed his senior brother, Macauley during the fight.

The police spokesman in Delta, Mr. Charles Muka, confirmed the incident and said that Sylvester had been arrested, adding that the corpse had been deposited at Central Hospital Agbor for autopsy.

In another development, a suspected armed robber was arrested at Ori-Abraka in Delta.

According to Muka, the suspect was arrested inside a commercial vehicle with bullet wounds on his stomach.

He said that the suspect confessed that he was shot by a member of his gang during a robbery operation.

Muka said that a manhunt to track down other members of the gang had started.
