

Police arrest passenger over conductor's death

POLICE in Lagos yesterday said it arrested a passenger in a commercial bus in whose conductor was killed.

Competent police sources at the Lagos State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID) Panti, Yaba, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) that the passenger allegedly pushed down the conductor while the bus was on motion.

The source said trouble started when the passenger sat on the seat reserved for the conductor. A struggle followed when the conductor attempted to make the passenger vacate the seat, resulting in the passenger allegedly pushing the conductor off of the bus.

The source added that the conductor, who sustained an injury on the head, was rushed to the hospital where he later died.

Spokesman for the Lagos State Police Command, Mr. Frank Mba, confirmed the arrest, saying the suspect would be charged to court at the end of investigations.
