DETECTIVES investigate death of four-year old boy found in a well

Police detectives in Lagos are investigating circumstances surrounding the death of a four-year-old boy found in a well.

A source at the Ajeromi police station in Lagos said yesterday that the body of the deceased, identified as Ramoni Sanni, was found floating in a well on November 24.

The source said that the incident was reported to the station by one Ibrahim Umaru, a resident at 2, Inusa Sanni Street, off Layinka Street, Ajegunle, where the deceased's parents were also residing.

According to the source, the deceased's mother, Mrs. Sadiat Sanni, was not at home when the incident occurred.

He said the police took photographs of the corpse before handing it over to the family for burial.

The source said that they did not suspect any foul play in the incident.

Confirming the incident, spokesman for the command, Mr. Frank Mba, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) that everything would be done to unravel the cause of the death.
