This is coming at a time the state police command paraded two suspects that allegedly killed and buried one Ezekiel Joel near the wild life park zoo in Jos on the 20th of this month following an argument, which ensued between them in a beer parlour at Tudun Wada, Jos North LGA of Plateau State.

Parading the suspects before news men in Jos Tuesday, the Police Public Relations Officer, ASP Mohammed Lerama, revealed that the suspects, one Peter Paul of Toro LGA of Bauchi State and Katon Gyesin Gasri of Tudun Wada, have confessed to have committed the alleged crime.

Meanwhile, some leaders of various ethnic groups have reiterated their readiness to bury their differences and live in peace with one another.

Speaking with our reporter two youth leaders of both Muslim and Christian faiths, Idris Mangalle and Ajang Yakubu, including the village head of Anaguta-speaking natives living in the Nassarawa Gwom Area Dala Zarama are believing strongly that the path to peace is at hand.

The meeting is to hold in a neutral place, because our reporter learnt that there were places within that vicinity, considered as no go area for a particular group of people based on their faith.

However, Lerama stated that two other suspects linked with the murder of the deceased were at large. He assured that efforts were being made to apprehend the suspects, pointing out that the police got to know of the murder following a tip-off from some members of the public.

ASP Lerama said the suspects would be charged to court when police investigations were completed, but he stressed that preliminary investigations had shown that the suspects actually murdered the said Ezekiel.

The police image-maker appealed to the public to be security-conscious and report any suspicious movements within their domains.
