Speaking to newsmen at the scene of the incident, Lt. Col. Hassan Mohammed narrated that at 3:30 pm when his men were on a routine duty at Gomari Coastin, they sighted a red Honda Civic car with a registration No. Kano AG 66 GWL pulling up at the JTF patrol vehicle,. He stated the JTF man noticed that that the driver was carrying a rifle and he shouted "armed robber" .

Lt. Col Hassan said that when the suspect recognized that he has been sighted, he opened fire on the two patrol vehicles of the JTF, shattering the glasses of one of the vehicle, while the tyres of the other vehicle were badly damaged.

He said the Boko Haram suspects were two in the car, while the man who engaged the JTF was killed the other occupant fled and was pursued but disappeared as the terrain was not
