

Robbers kill police in bank raid

AHMED MARJ, Maiduguri

ONE policeman was shot dead by suspected Armed Robber who stormed the an old generation Bank branch in Damboa town of Damboa Local Government area of Borno state, 89 kilometers away from Maiduguri the state capital.

Our correspondent gathered that the robbers who came on 10 motorcycles at about 1:00 PM and opened fire on people at the bank, killing one policeman and carted away unspecified amount of money.

It could be recalled that some time in March this, people suspected to be Boko Haram members attacked the same Bank and Police Barrack killing four policemen, 3 civilians and carted away large sum of money

Confirming, the incident, the Borno state commissioner of police Mr. Simeon Midenda said that he loss one of his men in robbery attacked but yet to get details of the incident from his Divisional Police Officer (DPO) in Damboa.

He said he has already deployed his men to Damboa to curb the bush of the area and fish out the robbers.