

moral support for self relevance.

Inferno claims life of security guard

FRANCIS IGATA, Enugu

THE Enugu State command of the Nigeria Police has commenced investigations into the alleged incident that led to the burning of a petrol station security room at Nsukka in Enugu state.

The incident led to the death of a security guard as he was allegedly engulfed by the inferno.

It was gathered that the incident took place on 1st December at about 11 pm at one Femkenas filling station at No 5 Catherin Rest House road Nsukka.

The victim identified as one Umoru Sheidu, has been deposited in a nearby hospital for autopsy.

ELITM:

D

I

U