

Gunmen kill Nurse in Kogi

TIMOTHY AJIBOYE, Lokoja

SUSPECTED hired assassin Son Saturday in Anyigba, Dekina local government area, Kogi state, killed a staff of Grimard hospital in the area.

Sources informed Daily Champion at Anyigba that the gunmen numbering four stormed the premises along old Egume road around 2am and went straight to their victim's room shot at him and removed one of the eyes bleeding to death.

The source stated that late Mr. Luke Egwu who was a senior nurse with Grimard hospital had just resumed work after a one month leave.

Narrating the ordeal to police, one of the sons of the victim who survived knife cut at the shoulder stated that the four gunmen came in through the back door, shot the father in the eye till he bled to death before any help from the co-tenants could come.

He said the assailants were hovering around the premises till they confirmed that his father was dead, before they left the 16 self-contained rooms in the area.

The police Public Relation Officer, PPRO Ajayi Okasanmi who confirmed the story said that the police was on top of the matter, noting that the search for the killers was on.