

10 Vigilance Men In Police Net For Murder

Police in the Adamawa State have arrested no fewer than 10 members of a vigilance group in Gombi Local Government area over the killing of an official of Song local government, Mohammed, Danlami Kaku at a pepper soup joint in Gombi.

The deceased was said to have travelled to Gombi from Song with the Song Council Chairman of the National Union of Local Government Employees (NULGE) Ahmed Saidu for a friend's wedding on Saturday when the incident occurred.

Daily Independent gathered that trouble started when the deceased and his friends Saidu decided to cool off at a pepper soup joint before heading for the wedding reception ground.
