Kidnapped son of Syrian businessman rescued in Kano

Published on April 14, 2018
By Fikayo Olowolagba

Fourteen-year old boy, Muhammad, son of a Syrian businessman Ahmed Areeda, who was kidnapped by gunmen has been released.

DAILY POST recalls that suspected gunmen on Tuesday killed the Syrian businessman and kidnapped his 14-year-old son, Muhammad Ahmed in Kano State.

The Syrian national was shot dead by the gunmen after he resisted the kidnapping of his son.

Police Public Relations Officer, SP Magaji Musa Majia on Saturday confirmed to journalists in the state that the boy has been rescued.

SP Majia said "The boy has been rescued. He was released without paying any ransom to the kidnappers."